CORAM : ABHAY AHUJA, J.

DATE : 25 SEPTEMBER 2025

PC. :

1. When these matters are called out, further time is sought to obtain the registered numbers. The proceedings indicate that time has been sought at least three times to remove office objections and obtain registered numbers. Yet again time is being sought today.

2. Subject to payment of costs of Rs.10,000/- to the High Court Employees Medical Welfare Fund at Mumbai, within a period of two weeks, let objections be removed and registered numbers be obtained to the Execution Applications within a period of four weeks after payment of costs, failing which the Execution Applications and consequently, the Interim Applications to stand dismissed without further reference to this Court.
3. It is made clear that no praecipe or application for further extension of time to obtain registered numbers would be entertained.
4. Let matters accordingly for now be removed from Board.
5. List only after the registered numbers are obtained.
