P.C.

1. Learned counsel for applicants and learned counsel for non-applicant no.2-informant make a statement that the parties have settled the matter and in a reply filed by the non-applicant no.2 today, on affidavit he made a categorical statement about the same.

2. Considering the nature of allegations and offence and further considering the fact that even if the trial is conducted, no purpose would be served and the whole exercise will be futile. In the circumstances, when there is lot of pendency before the Lower Court, to save the time of the Court and lessen the burden of the court, we are of the opinion that by accepting the settlement, the FIR can be quashed and set aside. However, it will be subject to cost, as the applicants and non-applicant no.2 put the criminal law in motion.

3. In the circumstances, we proceed to pass the following order :

ORDER
