Heard.

2. By this application, the applicant is seeking transfer of divorce petition bearing HMPA No.155/2022 filed by the non-applicant/husband from the file of Joint Civil Judge, Senior Division, Manglurpir, District Washim to the court of Civil Judge Senior Division, Daryapur, Dist. Amravati.

3. The main reason quoted in the application as well as reiterated by the applicant in his submission that the distance between Manglurpir and Daryapur being long, the applicant/wife causing hardship and inconvenience to attend the proceedings at Manglurpir. Hence on the ground alone, she seeks transfer of the proceedings at Daryapur.

4. Per contra, learned Counsel appearing for the non-applicant states that he is a medical practitioner and he is unable to attend the proceedings at Daryapur. He further pointed out that the applicant/wife through her minor son has already filed Civil Suit bearing RCS No.343/2023 for partition against the present non-applicant.

5. The said proceedings is pending at Manglurpir. It is well settled position of law, if any proceeding is pending at any station but it is desirable that other proceedings between the same parties can be allowed to continue at the same station.

6. In the present case, considering the fact that the civil suit is already pending before the Civil Judge Junior Division, Mangrulpur, I find no reason to interfere in the present matter.

7. Hence, in view of the above, the Misc. Civil Application stands rejected.
