CORAM : M.M. NERLIKAR, J.

DATE : SEPTEMBER 08, 2025.

Heard.

2. This an application seeking condonation of delay of 56 days in preferring Criminal Appeal. I have heard the learned Counsel appearing for the parties.

3. The learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the delay is not intentional. The reason for delay is that due to some tender work allotted to him by the MSEDCL, which was to be completed within a time bound manner, the applicant has to concentrate on that work. The said work is stated to be the only source of income. Thereafter, he met with his counsel at Arvi, filed an application for grant of certified copy of judgment and order on 13.06.2023, which was received on 23.06.2023, and thereafter contacted the Counsel at Nagpur. In such circumstances, the delay has caused.

4. The learned Counsel for non-applicants vehemently opposed the application by stating that there is no sufficient cause disclosed in the application, and therefore, the application deserves to be rejected.

5. I have gone through the application and reasons mentioned therein, particularly paragraph no.3. I am convinced that there is sufficient cause shown therein, hence, delay of 56 days in filing appeal is condoned, subject to payment of costs of Rs.500/-, to be deposited with the High Court Legal Services Sub-Committee, Nagpur within a period of one week, and receipt be produced on record. Criminal Application is accordingly allowed. Office to register the Application and list the same for admission on 22.09.2025.
