CORAM : M. W. CHANDWANI, J.

DATE : OCTOBER 07, 2025.

1. Heard.
2. By this application, the applicant seeks condonation of delay of 732 days caused in filing the appeal.
3. The contention is that the injured/applicant was 11 years old when he met with the accident in question. He suffered 80% permanent disability and therefore, he is unable to move. Due to the said reason and due to financial constraints, there was delay in filing the appeal.
4. Though, the application is resisted by the non-applicant no.3 on the ground that the applicant has already withdrawn the amount of award, there is no mala fide intention of the applicant in causing delay in filing the appeal. No prejudice will be caused to the non-applicant if the delay is condoned.
5. Considering the reasons mentioned in the application and the submissions of the respective learned counsels, the delay caused in filing the appeal is condoned.

6. It is made clear that the applicant/appellant shall not be entitled for interest on compensation or any other component, if enhanced, for the delayed period.

7. The civil application is allowed and disposed of.

8. The appeal be registered.
