Court's or Judge's order

Mr. M.H.Mahashabde, Advocate h/f Mr.U.A.Gosavi, Advocate for appellant.

Mr. P.R.Agrawal, Advocate for respondent Nos. 1 to 3 and 5.

Mrs.Mukta Kavimandan, AGP for respondent Nos. 6 and 7.

CORAM : ABHAY J. MANTRI, J.

DATE : JULY 30, 2025

1) Applicants/respondents No.1 to 3, 5 and legal heirs of respondent No.4 have filed this application to permit them to withdraw the amount of compensation deposited by the appellant, for which learned counsel for the appellant has given no objection.

2) Having considered the reasons disclosed in the application, as well as no objection of the learned counsel for the appellant, the application is allowed as prayed. The applicants are permitted to withdraw the entire compensation amount along with interest accrued thereon on a usual undertaking.

3) It appears that in the award, no apportionment of the compensation was made. So, learned counsel for the applicant submits that they were the joint owners of the acquired land and therefore, he urged that the compensation amount be distributed equally among all the applicants. That being so, in my view, it would be proper to pass an order regarding the apportionment of the amount to ensure effective disbursement of the amount.

4) As such, the Registrar (J) is directed to transfer the amount along with interest accrued thereon in the respective bank accounts of the applicants No.1 to 3, 5 and legal heirs of respondent No.4 in equal proportion, on their furnishing bank account details and usual undertaking to the Registry.
