Mr. S.S. Sheikh, Advocate for the applicant.

CORAM: MRS.VRUSHALI V. JOSHI, J.

DATED: 11.11.2025.

This is a second bail application filed by the applicant. First bail application was rejected on merits. Now the applicant has filed this application as there is change in circumstance. The trial is initiated and according to the learned Advocate for the applicant, witnesses have not mentioned name of this applicant. Thirteen witnesses are already examined. This cannot be a ground to file second bail application. The offence under Section 307 of I.P.C. and M.C.O.C. Act is registered against this applicant. As per the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of X V/s. State of Rajasthan reported in 2024 SCC OnLine SC 3569 once the trial is initiated, Court should be loath in entertaining the bail application of the accused. Considering the fact that the trial is already initiated, there is no change in the circumstance, second bail application cannot be entertained. Whether case is made out against the applicant will be decided in trial after considering the evidence. Accordingly, the application is rejected.
