CORAM : URMILA JOSHI-PHALKE, J.
DATE : 02nd MAY, 2025

Apprehending the arrest at the hands of police in connection with Crime No. 98/2025 registered under Section 132, 296, 3(5), 351(2), 351(3) of BNS, the applicant approached before this Court for grant of pre-arrest bail.

2. The crime is registered on the basis of report lodged by API Kishor Gopla Chandan on an allegation that, he along with the other police squad were on toeing duty for towing the vehicles proceeded at the no parking area. At the relevant time, he witnessed one two wheeler vehicle of Blue Colour of Acess Company and therefore, he lifted the said vehicle and kept it in towing vehicle. At the relevant time, the present applicant and the other co-accused came there and started dispute on that count and also hold his hand and assaulted him. On the basis of the said report, the police have registered the crime against the present applicant.

3. The learned counsel for the applicant submitted that as far as the allegation against the present applicant is concerned, which are to the extent of holding the hands and squeeze it, his custodial interrogation is not required as no weapon is used by him. In view of that, he be protected by the anticipatory bail.

4. The learned APP for the State strongly opposed for the same and submitted that the applicant and the other co-accused came on the spot along with the preparation and the other co-accused was holding the hands of the informant. In view of that, the application deserves to be rejected.

5. I have heard both the sides and perused the recitals of the FIR. Considering the allegations levelled against the present applicant who has not used any weapon and due to the lifting of the vehicle, the alleged incident has occurred, and considering the role of the applicant, he has made out the case for grant of anticipatory bail. According, I proceed to pass the following order:-

ORDER
