2. The counsel for the applicant submits that he has in the month of October, 2023, filed the suit against non-applicant No.2 for perpetual injunction, and on 3rd January, 2024, the trial Court was pleased to restrain non-applicant no.2 from entering into the suit premises, which is the subject matter of First Information Report.

3. In the FIR, which is lodged by non-applicant No.2, he claims himself to be owner of the lawn, which, in fact, is the subject matter of the suit. He states that on 4th December, 2023, i.e. prior to passing order of injunction, 20-25 persons (which includes the applicant herein) entered the lawn and created ruckus. The people caused loss to the property. Accordingly, report came to be lodged.

4. The argument is that civil dispute is being given colour of criminal proceedings.

5. On the strength of argument so made, which will be tested in due course, issue notice to the non-applicants, returnable on 02/09/2025.

6. The learned A.P.P. waives notice for non-applicant No.1.
