Dated this the 01st day of April, 2025

O R D E R

These Bail applications filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 are connected and therefore, I am disposing of these cases by a common order.

2. The petitioner in these cases is one and the same. The petitioner is arrayed as an accused in different crimes of Aruvikkara Police Station, Thiruvananthapuram. The offences alleged against the petitioner and other accused are under Sections 316(5), 318(4) and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023. Now the Crime Branch Police is investigating the matter.

3. The common case in these crimes is that the accused accepted fixed deposits from the defacto complainants in these cases and failed to return the payments on maturity. It is alleged that the accused misappropriated the amount and thus cheated the defacto complainants.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor.

5. The counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that, even if the entire allegations are accepted, no offence is made out against the petitioner. The counsel for the petitioner submitted that the Society is facing financial crisis and therefore the amount deposited is not disbursed. It is submitted that the petitioner is not even know the defacto complainants in these cases. The counsel submitted that the petitioner is suffering from different ailments. The counsel submitted that the 1st accused already committed suicide because of the registration of these cases. The counsel also submitted that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation.

6. The Public Prosecutor seriously opposed the bail application. The Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner is actively involved in these cases and she is in charge of the day-to-day affairs of the society. The Public Prosecutor also submitted that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is necessary.

7. This Court considered the contentions of the petitioner and the Public Prosecutor. After hearing both sides, I am of the considered opinion that the petitioner has to surrender before the Investigating Officer. The Investigating Officer can interrogate the petitioner, if necessary, continuously for 10 days from 10 am to 5 pm or for a period as the Investigating Officer wish. During the period of interrogation, the petitioner shall not be arrested. After interrogation, the Investigating Officer can record arrest, if necessary. If the arrest is recorded, the petitioner can be directed to be produced before the jurisdictional court and the jurisdictional court can consider the bail application, if an application is filed with advance copy to the Prosecutor concerned. I make it clear that this order will not stand in the way of the Investigating Officer arresting the other accused.

Hence these bail applications are disposed of with the following directions:

- 1. The petitioner will surrender before the Investigating Officer within four weeks from today. The Investigating Officer can interrogate the petitioner continuously for 10 days, if necessary from 10 am to 5 pm or for a period as the Investigating Officer wish. Thereafter, if arrest is recorded, the Investigating Officer shall produce the petitioner before the jurisdictional court.*
- 2. The petitioner is free to file a bail application before the jurisdictional court at the time of producing her before the Magistrate. If such a bail application is* filed with advance copy to the prosecutor concerned, the jurisdictional court will consider that bail application in accordance with law and pass appropriate orders in it preferably on the date of filing of the same itself.

3. The Investigating Officer is free to file custody application, if necessary, at the time of producing the petitioner and if such an application is filed, the jurisdictional court shall pass appropriate orders in it, before considering the bail application.
