2. The impugned order was passed by the trial Court mainly on the ground that the petitioner produced only photo copies of document Nos.2 to 8 which have been filed along with the petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit except document Nos.2 and 4, all other documents are available with the petitioner either in original or in certified copy. Therefore, the petitioner is ready to mark the original/certified copy of the documents. The learned counsel also submits as far as the documents Nos.2 and 3 are concerned, if the original or certified copies are received by the petitioner, the same will be marked at the time of tendering the same in evidence. The said statement made by the learned counsel of the petitioner is recorded.

4. In view of the same, the impugned order passed by the trial Court is set aside and I.A.No.2 of 2023 is allowed insofar as the document Nos.2 to 8 filed along with the petition on condition that the petitioner shall
