Crl.O.P.No.2227 of 2025

2. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seek indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioners are no way connected with the alleged offence and this is their second application for anticipatory bail filed before this Court and the first anticipatory bail application was dismissed on 27.12.2024. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution, as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the accused attempted to assault the defacto complainant, who is the Assistant Geologist for transportation of sand in a tipper lorry bearing Registration No.TN 23 BF 7449, without any valid permission. He further submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and this is the second bail application before this Court.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
