Vs

State By, The Inspector Of Police
T-14, Pallikaranai Police Station, Chennai. Crime
No.821 Of 2024

Respondent(s)

For Petitioner(s):

Mr.V.Muthupandi

For Respondent(s):

Mr.S.Santhosh

Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.821 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 and Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seek indulgence of this court. He would submit that the petitioners transported the sand from one site to another site. He would submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. He also submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to the defence and contention, are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- each as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any organization. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that, on 30.12.2024, at about 02.10 a.m., the Tashildar intercepted the lorry and found that the accused was illegally transporting 6 units of M-sand in a tipper lorry and a complaint was given before the respondent police and that the vehicle was also seized. He would submit that the petitioners are driver and owner of the tipper lorry. He would further submit that the petitioners has no previous case.

4. In respect of grant or refusal of anticipatory bail to the persons indulging in illegal sand mining, smuggling and theft of sand and minerals, the Apex Court in S.Mohamed Shahul Hameed Vs. State rep. by the Inspector of while expressing disagreement with the sweep observation made by this Court on the aspect of continuous misuse of discretionary power by the offenders and the enforcers as well in an organised manner, has clarified that in consideration of anticipatory bail, the role assigned to a person would have to be considered.

5. Considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) each as non refundable deposit to "The District Legal Services Authority, Chennai" without prejudice to the right of defence before the Trial Court and making it clear that it would not amount to admission of guilt.

6. Further, having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) each by way of Demand
