J U D G M E N T

(Judgment was delivered by S.M.Subramaniam J.)

The sole ground raised by the appellant in the present Intra-Court Appeal is that the proceedings of the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Counsel conciliation does not indict that the conciliation proceedings came to be ended and further proceedings commenced thereafter. Therefore, the order cannot be sustained in view of the provisions of the Act.

2. The learned counsel for the 2nd respondent would oppose by stating that though there is no specific order to that effect, reading of the order in entirety would show that the conciliation proceedings ended and thereafter the proceedings continued and final order passed.

3. After advancing argument for a considerable length of time, both the respective learned counsels appearing on behalf of the parties to the lis would agree that they have to go before the Arbitrator for adjudication of the disputed issues on merits.

4. High Court cannot adjudicate such disputed issues, since it requires examination of documents and evidences, etc.

5. In view of the consensus arrived between the parties, we are inclined to grant liberty to the parties to approach the Arbitrator under the Statute for effective adjudication of the disputed issues on merits and in accordance with law. The Council shall conduct arbitration by themselves or by appointing an Arbitrator, as the case may be.

6. With this liberty, the Writ Appeal stands disposed of. No costs.
