2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 09.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the de facto complainant's son is the person who had abused the mother of the petitioner and when it was questioned by the petitioner, there was a quarrel between them. He also submits that the incident happened only during the quarrel and further, the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that since the de facto complainant's son/victim had abused the mother of the petitioner, the petitioner had assaulted the de facto complainant with beer bottle causing head injury and threatened with dire consequences. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the case is under investigation. He also submits that five previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the facts of the case and the period
