counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, whereas, only to keep him under fetters and to detain him under Act 14, this case has been foisted against him. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution, as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that on 07.12.2024 at about 20.30 hours, when the respondent Police was on regular patrol duty, they saw the petitioner along with other accused in possession of iron rod and on enquiry, it came to light that the accused had planned to commit dacoity. He further submits that there are six previous cases against the petitioner.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, (out of which, one surety should be a blood related
