2.The incarceration of the petitioner being from 11.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is only 23 years and is no way connected with the alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution, as putforth by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner along with other accused formed an unlawful assembly and attempted to commit dacoity. He would submit that the petitioner has got six previous cases, therefore, if the petitioner is released on bail, there is a possibility of him absconding and not available for further investigation.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on
