... Respondents

This case came up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. The learned counsel for the appellant, Mr.K.Balaji and the learned counsel for the second respondent Mr.D.Baskaran are present. No appearance for the first respondent. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Both the parties and their respective counsel are present. The above appeal has been preferred by the claimant, challenging the quantum of amount Rs.3,82,500/- awarded by the Tribunal.

2. Parties have now arrived at a settlement, by which the Insurance Company is agreed to pay a sum of Rs.3,00,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs only) over and above the amount awarded by the Tribunal, in full quit to the claimant, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

3. The Insurance Company shall deposit a sum of Rs.3,00,000/-, over and above the amount awarded by the Tribunal, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, failing which the Insurance Company agreed to pay interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum.

4. On such deposit, the claimant shall be entitled to withdraw the award amount as per ratio of apportionment made by the Tribunal.

5. The claimant is permitted to withdraw her respective award amount. The Tribunal is directed to follow the usual mode of payment on proper identification of the parties, concerned, in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly.
