S.Santhosh

Government Advocate (criminal Side).

ORDER

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.260 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 294(b), 506(1) of IPC, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2.Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this court. He would submit that they are innocent and no way connected with this case. He would further submit that they are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that due to a property dispute, the petitioners joined together with an intention abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, assaulted him with hands and also threatened him with dire consequences. It is a case as well as counter. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioners.

4.Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ponneri, Tiruvallur District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intend to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
