in the case, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this court. He would submit that the petitioner/A2 is the wife of A1 and the petitioner is not aware of the sale agreement entered between her husband and the defacto complainant. He would further submit that the petitioner's husband was arrested and he has been granted bail in Crl.O.P.No.32169 of 2024 on 02.01.2025. He would also submit that it is a case of civil transaction, which has been falsely projected as a case of cheating and the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate(Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the petitioner's husband/A1 had entered into a sale agreement with the defacto complainant through his power agent one Srinivasan. Later, the said Srinivasan died and the accused, without the knowledge of the defacto complainant, had settled the property in favour of his wife, the petitioner herein.

5.Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Chengalpattu, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

Crl.O.P.No.262 of 2025

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of one week and thereafter, every Saturday at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
