CrI.O.P.No.294 of 2025

2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 10.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner, aged about 19 years, is in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been lodged against him. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that since the de facto complainant had questioned the petitioner for scolding his son, the petitioner enraged over the same and hurled a petrol bomb at the de facto complainant's house, in which, the de facto complainant sustained injury. He further submits that the case is under investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand
