2. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners, being the parents of A1 have nothing to do with the alleged offence and only to recover money from the petitioners, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners would submit that A1 under the disguise of an IAS Officer assured for getting a job for the son of the defacto complainant and received a sum of Rs.18 Lakhs and thereafter, cheated the defacto complainant.

4. The learned counsel for the Intervenor while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail would submit that the petitioners have also
