3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, submitted that the petitioner and the de-facto complainant are neighbours and due to a civil dispute between them, the petitioner allegedly assaulted the de-facto complainant and abused with filthy language and also attacked him with an iron rod, however, no injuries were sustained. Further, he submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the intervener/de-facto complainant has vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, and also considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered
