Facts of the case in nutshell as per the petition:-

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is facing trial in C.C.No.137 of 2011 on the file of the Special Court for Prevention of Corruption Act, Cases, Chennai for the charges under Section 7, 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) and Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and presently the trial is in defence side evidence. It is alleged that the petitioner had demanded bribe from the de facto complainant and this had prompted the de facto complainant to lodge a complaint before the respondent. The petitioner was trapped and is currently facing criminal proceedings. The complainant due to previous enmity had lodged false complaint against the petitioner and the same was already intimated in writing to the Assistant Commissioner of Vigilance and Anti Corruption along with supporting documents. The investigating Officer also filed his final report. On perusal of the final report it was found that the letter of P.W7 dated 12.01.2010 was not brought on record inspite of intimating the same to the Assistant Commissioner of Vigilance and Anti Corruption. Though, many petitions

3. Mr.Shiek M.Muzzammil, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the trial Court has already concluded the trial and convicted the petitioner vide order dated 20.01.2025. The appropriate observation of the judgement is reproduced here as under:

“42.....

In result, accused is found guilty of commission of offence u/s7 and 13 (2) r/w 13(1)(d) of Prevention of Corruption Act 1988. The accused is sentenced to undergo four years rigorous imprisonment and shall pay a fine of Rs.50,000/- in default to undergo three months simple imprisonment under Section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. The accused is sentenced to undergo five years rigorous imprisonment and shall pay a fine of Rs.50,000/- in default to undergo 6 months simple imprisonment under Section 13 (2) r/w 13(1)(d) of the P.C.Act 1988, the sentence of imprisonment imposed for each offence shall run concurrently. The period of sentence already undergone by the accused if any is ordered to be set off under Section 428 Cr.P.C. Total fine amount of Rs.1,00,000/-” .

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that there is no useful purpose to proceed the present case any further for the relief as sought for and also submitted that the present petition may be dismissed.

5. Mr.A.Gopinath, learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), ascertained to this Court that the trial Court has already passed the above said order on 20.01.2025 and convicted and sentenced the petitioner. Thus no useful purpose will be served in continuing the proceeding furthers in this case any more and hence, prayed for dismissal of this present petition.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. After considering the arguments made by both the parties, it is
