2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 17.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed for bail.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused had driven his vehicle in a rash and negligent manner. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Later, the petitioner came to the house of the defacto complainant and threatened her and also misbehaved with her by showing indecent gestures.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
