3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the accused were found to be in illegal possession of 26 bottles of liquor. He further submits that this Court, taking into consideration the 36 previous cases registered against the petitioner, had dismissed the petitioner's first bail application and there is no change of circumstances.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and taking note of the facts that the petitioner is habitual offender, having 36 previous cases and there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
