2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner borrowed a substantial loan from a private money lender. Subsequently, the petitioner was unable to repay the loan and filed for adjudication in I.P. No. 4 of 2024 before the Sub Court, Omalur, which is still pending against the creditors. At this juncture, the money lender lodged a complaint and based on this complaint, C.S.R.No.552 of 2024 was issued on the file of the respondent. A detailed enquiry was conducted and the matter was subsequently closed. The petitioner, therefore, apprehends a threat to his life from the money lender and has lodged a complaint.

3. Based on the said complaint, the respondent police conducted an enquiry, during which the money lender assured that no further disturbance would occur at the hands of the money lender.
