The said memorandum of compromise is presented before me for approval.

4. The learned counsel for the first respondent/plaintiff states that the suit is for determination of paternity. The DNA test has to be undergone by the first respondent and the third respondent before passing judgment in the suit. He also requests the names of the parties not to be mentioned in the website for the purpose of privacy. However, the certified copy issued to the counsel alone shall contain the names of the parties. The order being uploaded in the website shall not contain the parties' names.

5. The Trial Court is directed to dispose of the suit after calling for the DNA report.

6. In view of the compromise memo filed by the parties, the order passed in I.A.No.4 of 2022 is modified to direct the first respondent and third respondent namely, the plaintiff and the defendant No.2 alone to give samples for DNA test and the direction by the trial Court to collect the samples from the third defendant is set-aside.

7. The joint memorandum of compromise shall form a part and parcel of this order.

8. This Civil Revision Petition is disposed of with the aforesaid observations. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
