2. It is seen from the records that the second respondent is the minor child and the paternity of the child is not under dispute.

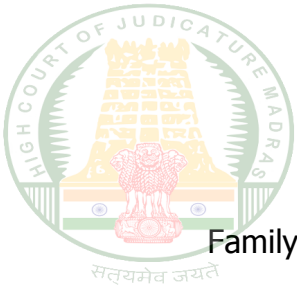

3. The second respondent is admittedly 11 year old school going child.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the cost of living and the price index, the requirement of the child and taking into account the impugned order of maintenance by the Family Court is just, fair and reasonable and the respondent/wife is an M.Sc. degree holder in Mathematics. She is able to maintain and lead a normal life. The Family Court ordered reasonable maintenance amount, and there is no warranting reasons to interfere with the impugned order passed by the Family Court, as there is no perversity, irregularity or infirmity in the same.

5. Taking into account the fact that the first respondent/wife is a well educated person and both the spouses have separated themselves and both of them have contracted second marriage and are having child.

6. Finding no reasons to interfere with the impugned order passed by the
