ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 294(b), 324 of IPC in Crime No.15 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some previous enmity, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

Crl.O.P.No.1127 of 2025

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some previous enmity, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked and threatened with dire consequences and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the fact that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner and injured was discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
