2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant due to which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with tiles and also abused him in a filthy language, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries and was admitted in the hospital. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant due to which, he sustained injuries. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital. He would also submit that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner out of which, one case was disposed. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant
