Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No. 13 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner illegally transported 7 units of ordinary stones using a Taurus Lorry bearing registration No.TN-85-U-5746 without any valid license. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit the petitioner illegally transported 7 units of ordinary stones using without any valid license. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
