3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused had waylaid the de facto complainant, abused him in filthy language, assaulted him and attempted to snatch his mobile phone. He also submits that the case is under investigation and further submitted that both the petitioners are habitual offenders and against them, 9 previous cases are pending

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the antecedents of the petitioner, this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed for the present.
