COMMON ORDER

These matters are listed at the instance of the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. Originally, this Court had granted an interim order pending disposal of the writ petition. Thereafter, the main writ petition itself was disposed of by directing the Government to refer the matter. As a matter of fact, an appeal was filed by the Government, and the writ appeal was also dismissed.

3. In this process, the interim order had expired, and the G.O. was also not passed. By consent of parties, interim protection was originally granted till 31.03.2025, and thereafter extended up to 31.07.2025. In this context, the matter was listed under the caption “being mentioned” by the learned counsel for the petitioner, stating that the interim protection granted up to 31.07.2025 was about to expire, and since no G.O. had been passed, he sought further extension.

W.P.Nos.1856 & 420 of 2025

WEB COPY4. On the earlier occasion, when this Court enquired with the Government, the learned Additional Advocate General, representing the first respondent, submitted that the G.O. would be passed. Accordingly, today, G.O.(D) No. 411, dated 28.07.2025 has been issued, and the parties' rights will get crystallised as per law.

5. Recording the same and since no further orders are necessary, W.P.Nos. 1856 & 420 of 2025 stands closed.
