seeking leave to file a reply statement. Learned counsel for the defendant submits that the statements made in the written statement have been captured therein without providing adequate justification for filing a reply statement.

2. Upon examining paragraphs 6 and 7 of the affidavit dated 21.04.2025, I am satisfied that the plaintiff has established reasonable cause for filing a reply statement. Therefore, this application is allowed. As a corollary, the Registry is directed to receive the reply statement.
