2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A3 being from 18.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, for a statistical purpose, the respondent had foisted this case. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner/A3, aged about 19 years, along with other accused had waylaid the de facto complainant, abused him, assaulted him and by intimidating him at knife point, robbed a sum of Rs.3,000/- from him through Gpay and run away from the spot. He further submits that the case is under investigation and one previous case registered under NDPS Act is pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
