2.Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this court. He submits that A1 was found in illegal possession of 30grams of Ganja and the petitioner is A2 and he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession statement of A1. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate(Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that A1 was found in illegal possession of 30grams of Ganja and he has confessed that the seized Ganja has been bought from unknown persons. He further submits that the petitioner has no previous case as against him.

4.At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any organization.
