2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 12.01.2025 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and the case was registered against him only for the statistical purpose. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused had waylaid the de facto complainant and demanded money and when the de facto complainant had refused to give the money, the accused, abused him in filthy language, assaulted him and by threatening him at knife point, extorted a sum of Rs.1500/- from him. He further submits that no recovery was made from the accused and the case is under investigation. He also submits that three previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
