2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 12.01.2025 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is having license to the alleged TASMAL bar and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and further, without prejudice to the defence and contention, he is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused were indulged in illegal sale of the TASMAL liquor in higher price at the TASMAL bar (license No.6 of 2024), which was in the name of the petitioner and from their illegal possession, 48 bottles of TASMAL liquor (each 180 ml) were recovered. He further submits that seven previous cases of similar nature are pending against the petitioner.

4. Considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of the "The Tamil Nadu Advocate's
