the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the similarly placed co-accused has been granted anticipatory bail by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution, as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that due to Pongal Festival Dance Programme, there arose a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. As a result of which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He also submits that there is no previous cases pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from
