2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information, the respondent police found A1 in possession of 100 grams of Ganja and on his confession, it was revealed that A2 and A3 (the petitioner) purchased the said contraband from Andhra Pradesh and handed over the contraband to A1 and that A1, A4 and A5 sold the contraband for personal gain.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required; that no contraband was seized from the petitioner; that she is sought to be implicated based on the confession of the co-accused and hence prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has 6 previous cases registered under NDPS Act, in which, 3 cases are pending investigation and remaining 3 cases are pending trial.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the contraband seized from A1 is small quantity, no contraband was seized from the petitioner, she is sought to be implicated based on the confession of the co-accused, the petitioner is on bail in all the other previous cases and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned X Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left

Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under
