2. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. Initially the petitioner owned property and intended to sell the same to the second respondent. Thereafter, the second respondent found that the said property was mortgaged with the bank and there was an encumbrance. Therefore, in order to settle the said amount, the second respondent had paid entire amount and insisted the petitioner to register the sale deed in his favour. However, the petitioner refused to register the property and therefore, the second respondent registered complaint and he was issued with C.S.R.No.551 of 2024.

4. When the petitioner was called for enquiry, she filed direction petition before this Court in Crl.O.P. No.26836 of 2024, not to harass the petitioner under the guise of enquiry in C.S.R.No.551 of 2024. This Court by an order dated 28.10.2024, directed the petitioner to appear for enquiry and co-operate with the enquiry. After issuance of direction, the first respondent about to conduct enquiry on the complaint lodged by the second respondent in C.S.R.No.551 of 2024. Now the petitioner sought for direction to close the C.S.R., without conducting enquiry.
