found missing. Based on his complaint, a case in Crime No.29 of 2025 came to be registered for the offence punishable under Section 303(2) of BNS.

Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that in five cases, the petitioner has not committed any offence and is in no way connected to these cases but was added as a accused in these cases, and in any case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the two-wheelers have not been recovered and the petitioner is involved in all the cases.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and also perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations; and the vehicles have not been recovered, the bad antecedents of the petitioner and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, these Criminal Original Petitions are dismissed.
