JUDGMENT

(Judgment of the Court was made by S.M.SUBRAMANIAM,J.)

The writ petitioner is the appellant before this Court. The appellant filed a complaint before the Police Department that the fourth respondent Mr.C.S.Velusamy secured appointment in Police Department by filing fraudulent certificates. Since the complaint was not dealt with by the authorities nor disciplinary proceedings are initiated, the writ petition came to be instituted.

2. The writ Court dismissed the writ petition having found that the complaint is vexatious.

3. Admittedly, the fourth respondent was allowed to retire from service on attaining the age of superannuation during January, 2011.

Therefore, even under the Pension Rules, no action can be initiated. More so, the appellant is the brother's son of the fourth respondent and on account of family dispute, the complaint has been lodged. In any angle, departmental disciplinary action cannot be initiated now after a lapse of about 14 years from the date of retirement of the fourth respondent. Thus we do not find any infirmity in respect of the writ order rejecting the writ petition. Consequently, the writ appeal stands dismissed. No costs.
