ORDER

This Writ Petition has been filed challenging the proceedings of the 1st respondent dated 02.08.2024.

2.Heard Mr.J.James, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and Mr.A.Selvendran, the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents.

this Court interfered with the order on the ground that principles of natural justice has been violated. The matter was remitted back to the file of the 1st respondent for fresh consideration after affording opportunity. The 1st respondent had once again passed the impugned order by not affording any opportunity to the petitioner and by merely getting a report from the Revenue officials.

4.A similar writ petition was filed before this Court in W.P.No.38665 of 2024 and this writ petition was allowed by an order dated 03.01.2025. This Court had set aside the order passed by the 1st respondent and remitted the matter back to the file of the 2nd respondent with a direction to afford opportunity to the petitioner and thereafter pass orders in accordance with law.

5.The 1st respondent while passing the impugned order has gone by the report that was submitted by the authorities and the petitioner did not have any notice on this report to submit the objection and virtually the impugned order has been passed in violation of principles of natural justice.

6.In the light of the above discussion, the impugned proceedings of the 1st
