2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant, the petitioner and the other accused are friends; that they had consumed liquor and a wordy quarrel arose with the defacto complainant, as a result of which, the petitioner and other accused had attacked the defacto complainant with hands. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 18.01.2025 and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that there are nine previous cases against the petitioner, out of which, seven are registered under NDPS Act and two cases are for 324 and 506 (ii) IPC. He further submitted that the petitioner is on bail in all other cases.
