In the draft plaint, it is stated that the cause of action arose partly in Chennai because the relevant goods were supplied from Chennai, invoices were issued from Chennai and part payment was received in Chennai.

2. From the averments in the draft plaint and in the affidavit in support of this application, it appears that a part of the cause of action has arisen in Chennai. Therefore, this application is allowed as prayed for. As a corollary, the Registry is directed to number the suit, if otherwise in order.
