the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 189(2), 296(B), 329(4), 118(1), 115(2), 309(4), 351(3), 49 and 190 of B.N.S. in connection with the case in Crime No.3 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between A1 and the defacto complainant with regard to the ownership of the property, on the instruction of A1, the petitioner entered into the house of the defacto complainant, attacked him and threatened with dire consequences.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is an innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the allegations are false and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), on instructions, would submit that the victim was treated as out-patient.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, that this petitioner is sought to be implicated as an accused based on the confession statement of co-accused, the fact that the victim was treated as out-patient, that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.VI, Puducherry on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed
