ORDER

This revision petition has been filed to set aside the order in Crl.M.P.No.8 of 2022 made in Na.Ka.No.51/Nir.Che.Nadu/ Ka.Thu.A./ (North)/Co.Ma/2022 dated 20.12.2022 passed by the Executive Magistrate-cum-Deputy Commissioner of Police, North Coimbatore Town, Coimbatore District.

2. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-Police, on instructions, submitted that, in order to keep good behaviour for a period of one year, the petitioner executed a bail bond under Section 110 Cr.P.C., on 22.08.2022. Subsequently, the petitioner was involved in another case in Crime No.509 of 2022 for the offence punishable under Section 379 IPC. After due enquiry, the first respondent, vide impugned order dated 20.12.2022, initiated proceedings under Section 122 (1) (b) of Cr.P.C and cancelled the bail bond executed under Section 110 Cr.P.C., and sentenced the petitioner to undergo imprisonment for the remaining period of bond. He further submitted that now the period of sentence is over and hence, nothing survives for adjudication in this revision petition.

3. On a perusal of the entire materials, it is seen that, at the time of enquiry before the first respondent, the petitioner has stated that he did not want to examine any witness or produce any documents regarding the allegations made against him, and that the first respondent-Executive Magistrate, after considering the entire materials produced by the prosecution, cancelled the bail bond executed under Section 110 Cr.P.C., and sentenced the petitioner to undergo imprisonment for the remaining period of bond. From the submissions of the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, it reveals that now the undergoing sentence by the petitioner is over and hence, nothing survives for adjudication in this revision petition.

4. In view of the above, this Criminal Revision Petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. However, it is open to the petitioner to work out his remedy in the manner known to law, if he has
