2. It is the case of the prosecution that the deceased and other accused belonged to the same village; that the deceased on account of prior enmity had left the village and was residing at Chennai with his wife; that the accused called the deceased for a meeting, consumed alcohol; and that thereafter, caused the death of the deceased by severing his head. The petitioner is shown as A9 in the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the allegations are false; that he was not present in the scene of the occurrence; that in any case, his further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation; and that considering his period of incarceration, he may be granted bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) on instructions submitted that there are 4 previous cases against the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.
